PROJECT INSPIRATION: THE CHICAGO RIVER SYSTEM

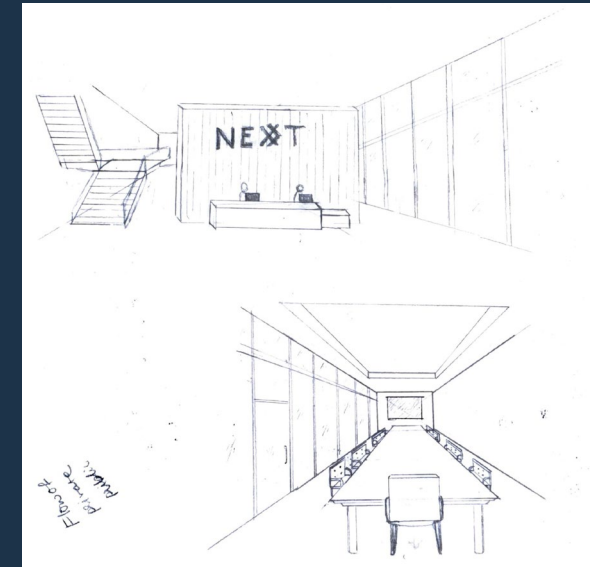

- The Chicago River is one singular part of a larger system
- All the parts of the system come together, pouring into something greater

PRIVATE OFFICE TYPICAL

TEAM MEETING ROOM TYPICALS

THANK YOU
